

INDIGENOUS LANGUAGES AND ARTS FACT SHEET

The Australian Government's vision is for an Australia where respect for our rich diversity begins with respect for the world's oldest continuing culture, that of our First Australians.

Cultural heritage and knowledge is passed on throughout each generation by language and art expression. Language and art contain complex understandings of a person's values, identity, pride, self-worth and connection with others and their environment.

The Indigenous Languages and Arts (ILA) grant program invests around $20 million per annum to support Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples to express, preserve and maintain their cultures through languages and arts activities around Australia.

The ILA program includes annual operational funding support to a network of 21 Indigenous Language Centres across the country working on capturing, preserving and maintaining over 150 Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander languages. The ILA program also supports Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples to develop, produce, present, exhibit or perform Indigenous arts projects that showcase Australia's traditional and contemporary Indigenous cultural and artistic expressions.

HOW IS THE ILA PROGRAM HELPING INDIGENOUS COMMUNITIES?

The ILA program provides grant funding to support the following objectives:

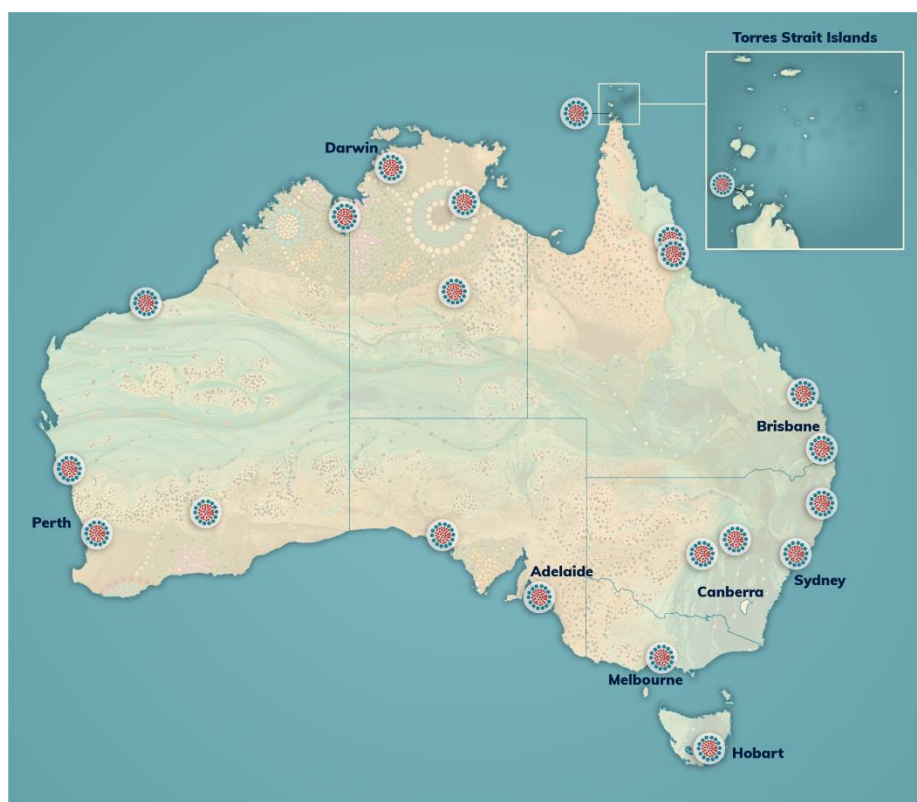

- To empower Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples to preserve and teach their culture through languages and arts.
- To foster a strong sense of cultural identity and wellbeing in Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples, which contributes to sustainable and strong communities.
- To contribute to the increased recognition and celebration of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander languages and arts in the wider Australian community.
