If the answer to either question is yes, please attach details. Please note that Australian Government taxation measures for film are mutually exclusive. You will only be able to claim support under one of the measures available.

Section 4—Projected expenditure statements

Projected expenditure statements for the production must present detailed information on its projected qualifying PDV expenditure.

1. Expenditure statements

Projected qualifying PDV expenditure must be identified in Australian dollars and include details of projected expenditure by category, including a description of each expenditure item (eg. cast, lighting, CGI etc.), the amount of projected expenditure and the details of each service provider by expenditure item. If the applicant expects to incur production expenditure while a foreign resident, details of that expenditure must be attached as a separate schedule. The schedule must also indicate any period/s of that foreign residency during which the applicant will not have a permanent establishment in Australia and an ABN. For PDV expenditure commencing on or after 1 July 2011, the GST-exclusive amount must be identified (GST input credits are not considered qualifying Australian production expenditure).

2. Currency exchange

Projected production expenditure expected to be incurred in foreign currencies must be converted into Australian dollars using an estimated rate of exchange.

If currency will be converted into Australian dollars, please indicate:

the currency in question:

the currency exchange rate used:

3. Arm's length expenditure

If possible, please provide the name of all companies (as identified in the expenditure statements) who will provide goods/services in making the film that are associated with the applicant or any of its associated entities (within the meaning of section 50AAA of the Corporations Act 2001) with a brief explanation of the nature of the goods/services provided. If this information is unknown, please mark 'NA'. (Please attach additional information on a separate sheet if there is insufficient space provided below).

4. Overview of expenditure statements

Projected qualifying PDV expenditure

Confidentiality

Please note that all information provided by the applicant will be held by the Department on a strictly commercial-in-confidence basis. However, information collected may be provided to a number of bodies to assist in the administration of the Australian Screen Production Incentive (ASPI) or for other purposes as required by law:

- All applications will be provided to the Film Certification Advisory Board (FCAB) which is bound by Commonwealth confidentiality provisions to treat all such information as commercial-in-confidence, but may seek information from third parties.
- Aggregate and non-identifying information will also be provided to Screen Australia for statistical purposes.
- Information collected may be used by the Commonwealth for the purposes of reviewing the ASPI.
- Information collected may be provided to other agencies or departments of the Commonwealth, including the Australian Tax Office, where this is required by law.

Statutory Declaration

Section 8 of the Statutory Declarations Act 1959 (Commonwealth) requires a statutory declaration to be made in a prescribed form and before a prescribed person. The prescribed form follows at Section 6. Examples of a prescribed person include the following: Chiropractor, Dentist, Legal practitioner, Medical practitioner, Nurse, Justice of the Peace, Pharmacist, Physiotherapist or Psychologist.

A full list of prescribed persons before whom a Statutory Declaration may be made (contained in the Statutory Declaration Regulations 1993) is available from the Department while the legislation governing this provision can be sourced on-line from the Federal Government's legal information retrieval database at www.comlaw.gov.au.
