

National Cultural Policy Submission

1468574

Public and anonymous

Short submission (text box 500 words or less)

Arts funding in general needs to be massively ramped up to combat the increasing cultural oppression coming from the US. It is very concerning how much they have eradicated our local culture and attitudes. We need to fight back against their cultural oppression with whatever we can manage