

National Cultural Policy Submission

1468686

Public

Individual

Sylvie Leber

Short submission (text box 500 words or less)

There is an omission in tackling the financial issues artists and arts organisations have to deal with.

In some European countries artists are guaranteed a living wage by their governments.

In recent times so many loved and respected arts organisations have had their funding suddenly cut for no reason by state and federal government bodies.