

National Cultural Policy Submission

1469455

Public and anonymous

Short submission (text box 500 words or less)

It supports artists who already have support. The same artists benefit from a number of funding and organisational support. The current system supports organisations over artists. It has the same dynamics as commercial galleries and networks. It does not support variety, experimentation, research, non-commercial artistic practices