

National Cultural Policy Submission

1469746

Public

Individual

Bo Smith

Short submission (text box 500 words or less)

As someone who is currently facing a lack of economic opportunities for stability, having access to community and upskilling opportunities that are both creative, impactful and up-to-date builds more confidence between government and the creative arts industry.