

National Cultural Policy Submission

1470026

Public and anonymous

Individual

Short submission (text box 500 words or less)

As per the Australia Reads 'Understanding Australian Readers' Report we are seeing a decline in reading so I feel there needs to be more focus on writing and reading included in the next iteration of the policy to encourage reading. Reading grows engagement with new ideas and cultures and aids with media literacy including understanding mis- and disinformation.