

National Cultural Policy Submission

1470362

Public

Individual

Kayla Gamer

Short submission (text box 500 words or less)

The current National Cultural Policy doesn't have a specific focus on Arts Education. We need Arts Education to be central to this country's National Cultural Policy. The inclusion and priority of Arts Education, specifically Drama and Theatre Arts, is imperative to the successful curation of a well-rounded, academic and socially adept society in the 21st Century which starts with our cultural policy.