

National Cultural Policy Submission

1470399

Public and anonymous

Individual

Short submission (text box 500 words or less)

I propose that an annual refundable tax credit be introduced for the purchase of Australian books - books that are both authored and published in Australia. This will not only strengthen the readership of Australian stories; it will also strengthen our creative industries.