It is not enough to have a downloadable PDF detailing all the things the government will support and the belief system behind that... when the support is not really forthcoming, and you have not addressed the issues that are in danger of making us a non player on the world stage.

To me it seems that the power is held by a very few. The artists whose work has been stolen, ripped off, appropriated and resold for profit don't seem to share in the bounty that made others rich.

I hope I'm wrong. I hope I see change in my lifetime.
