5 pillars is exclusive to Aboriginal & TSI only. First Nations is not an Australian term rather American & Canadian. All Aussies should be included. Aboriginals & TSI are same value as all Australians, not special but different. Their heritage is not typical of most Australians. The majority of Aussies intent on engaging.

So 5 pillars are not relevant to me.

I would not be involved in such practice.

I celebrate values of the majority of Australians, not a select few that don't relate to me.

I wish you well in your endeavours but not at the expense of all Australians
