

National Cultural Policy Submission

1471808

Public

Individual

Jane Tryon

Short submission (text box 500 words or less)

In the age of Ai it's vital that creatives are supported more than ever to ensure a vibrant artistic culture in Australia. Financial support should include a tax free threshold above the current rate. Art supplies should not be subject to GST. Most importantly I believe The Creative Australia selection criteria should be as simple and transparent as the EMDG department processing.