

National Cultural Policy Submission

1471830

Public and anonymous

Short submission (text box 500 words or less)

Cultural works can be an opportunity to promote TIS national as a service to help non english speakers access critical services

Some essential services sometimes look like prison buildings which can be triggering for the people who need to access them most. An investment in art can reduce this and improve engagement