

National Cultural Policy Submission

1472000

Public

Individual

Marco Angelini

Short submission (text box 500 words or less)

Not enough emphasis is placed on the centrality of the arts to Australian identity and culture. The words are often right, but it is hard to find the substantive policy, educational and financial commitment to the arts in this document. I would like to see a compelling argument being made for a vigorous arts sector as a necessary component of any future that describes a successful Australia.