

National Cultural Policy Submission

1472128

Public and anonymous

Short submission (text box 500 words or less)

I think the arts should be prioritised and funded more than they currently are. Art develops empathy, problem solving and community, but artists, writers and musicians are not afforded time, space or money to provide these things. When our government does not value arts, society doesn't value arts. Living wages for artists now.