

National Cultural Policy Submission

1472453

Public and anonymous

Short submission (text box 500 words or less)

We need to get more funding for Australian authors and Australian stories. Books are a huge part of our cultural heritage and even now Australian voices are often ignored by the publishing industries. Libraries also need more funding as they play an important and integral role in our society, not only for books, but also accessibility to internet, help and build skills and opportunities to our society.