

National Cultural Policy Submission

1472678

Public and anonymous

Individual

Short submission (text box 500 words or less)

Book shops are dual purpose places. Where else can you gather and face to face meet and converse about books with another like minded person. I consider them to be a Community Service in establishing a place to gather so lacking in many areas.