

National Cultural Policy Submission

1475282

Public and anonymous

Individual

Short submission (text box 500 words or less)

Domestic and global forces have placed the Australian live musical performing arts landscape under unsustainable pressure.

Covid era impacts are still biting, the ever growing commercialisation of the arts is creating a wicked problem that will continue