

National Cultural Policy Submission

1466639

Public and anonymous

Short submission (text box 500 words or less)

As already stated Australian Culture is Indigenous and migrant culture. We need to ensure that Indigenous culture is always at the forefront of all media formats to support and acknowledge Indigenous culture as the primary source of Australian culture. We know as should be known Indigenous culture and language existed long before migrant culture. We then showcase how through creativity of Indigenous and migrant culture exists.