

Submission to the National Arts and Disability Strategy consultation 2018 – G Scott

First Correspondence 26 October 2018

I am profoundly deaf and artist in Western Australia.

My name is Geoffrey Scott.

I swam top of Australia Deaf Swimming and team Australia Water Polo for Deaflympic 2005 at Melbourne.

I passed at Diploma Fine Arts 2000 TAFE Central Perth and Bachelor of Arts 2004 with Curtin University of Technology.

They help some interpreters Auslan or no interpreters to cancelled.

And Postgraduate not finish more one 2004 to 2006 with Curtin University of Technology to very difficult English Grammar.

Now I studying began 2013 to 2018 with Holy Bible at Emmanuel Centre Perth Western Australia.

I was my age 9 ½, and I touched a big nose Black Panther at North farm and house farm in Doodlakine Western Australia.

I never see about a Black Panther in Australia.

About holiday Easter 1968 my parent farm at Doodlakine Western Australia.

And new shed shearing for first day and three men aborigines' shears inside my Dad "Jack" and cousin's Jimmy Scott.

All men can't hear inside. I shouted repeat all men.

They never help me outside with a big Black Panther.

I protected over a hour a Black Panther like playing a mouse or rat like me.

The weather is very hot and heat wave and very drought and empty a dam water.

Really my story and my twin sister's Patty can't remember.

My brother's Timothy told me about he heard roaring near old farm house in May 1983. He woke his car middle night. I drove ploughed farm.

Thank you.

Cheers and Bless

Geoffrey Scott (Bachelor of Arts)

Second Correspondence 30 October 2018

I am patience. I live in Perth Western Australia.

I need interpreter Auslan for Australia equal.

I imaged first bright light with Auslan in December 2000 at TAFE Central Perth.

Next I saw a Holy Spirit visit me at Craigie Swimming Pool near Pinnaroo Memorial in morning on Sunday 20th March 2011.

God message me meaning he forgive me. I recognised him.

Cheers and bless.

Geoffrey Scott (Bachelor of Arts)

